REFERENCES

1. The Committee of State Security (KGB) attached to the Council of Ministers of the USSR is not intended to replace the former Committee of Information (KI) since the latter had engaged strictly in intelligence work. The KGB will rather be the old MGB under a new name, except that it will no longer have administrative responsibility for organizations such as GULAG. The former MGB under Victor Semenovitch Abakumov had grown to such a size that it was difficult for the minister to handle.
